

IRB ANNOUNCEMENT

Roll out to eIRB System begins June 1st

The electronic IRB (eIRB) submission goes live for Rutgers Busch and Livingston campuses on Thursday, June 1st.

Roll out of eIRB to legacy Rutgers will be on a campus based schedule. Researchers (professional or student) from any program on either the Busch or Livingston campus submitting human subject research projects to the IRB on or after June 1st will need to do so through the eIRB website: <http://eirb.rutgers.edu>.

Numerous campus training opportunities are available, as well as online training manuals and quick reference guides. See our website for specific details including training locations and dates: <https://orra.rutgers.edu/eirb-training-sessions>.

In addition, you may call the IRB office at 732-235-2866 for more information.

Note: Look for further information about the roll out to other Rutgers campuses in the near future.
